Conae Black said this election was a mail-in ballot. There were several ballots that came back as undeliverable. This will change the number of registered voters for the General Election as the County will clean all of that up. Out of the 202 ballots received four of them were rejected. Two came in after the August 13th postage date and two because the signatures were not valid.

There were not any questions or concerns on the election results.

MOTION: Kathy Ryan moved to approve the 2019 Primary Election results. Kim Andrus seconded the motion. VOTE: Penney Riches, Kim Andrus, Kathy Ryan and Anna Evans voted aye.

2. Adjourn. The meeting adjourned at 6:18 p.m.
